Platinum Member: - 10 lakh

This membership grants lifelong validity for two individuals.

The selection of the next member's name must be made prior to finalizing the agreement and can only be changed once, after the agreement is in place and

In the event of the first member's passing, the membership will be transferred to the individual as decided previously, and they must be an individual aged 40 or above at the time of transfer.

If the nominated successor is below 40 years of age at the time of the first member's demise, the room will be transferred to the spouse or an appropriate family member, based on authorities' discretion.

Upon the passing of both members, the room will revert back to the community.

The entire payment can be made in three instalments, all within 1 year from the first payment.

You will have the opportunity to book the room for 60 days free of charge, every year, during the Gour Purnima festival.

During other times, the room can be booked for a maximum of 60 days per year, free of charge.

Each stay must not exceed 4 weeks. (Remaining 4 days will be added to the second stay.)

Members are required to provide a minimum maintenance contribution every year to ensure the upkeep and maintenance of the room.

During periods when the member is not utilizing or has not reserved the room, the community reserves the right to allocate the room to other members for their use. It is expected that all members will kindly comply with this arrangement and refrain from lodging complaints regarding the temporary reassignment of the room.

Upon the completion of the initial free 60-day period, members have the option to extend their booking or rent the room with an appropriate discount and additional facilities. This allows members to continue their stay with added convenience and benefits.

Following the initial free 60-day period, members have the opportunity to rent the room at a discounted rate of up to 60%.

Personal and valuable furniture is not permitted to be kept in the room.

Rooms can be booked by members or members can visit at any time; however, it is necessary to inform the management at least 3 days prior to the intended arrival. This prior notice allows the management to make the necessary arrangements and ensure that a suitable room is available to accommodate the member's stay.

In the event that the booked room is undergoing construction, repairs, or experiencing any other issues, the authority will promptly provide the member with an alternative room for the duration of the inconvenience.

A common kitchen will be provided for all members to utilize.

Additional services and facilities beyond the standard offerings will be available, but please note that charges will apply. However, these additional services and facilities will be offered at the maximum discounted rate, ensuring affordability and convenience for members.

In the event of sudden confinement imposed by governmental authorities at any time, all members can discuss their situation with the authorities. The authorities will then try their best to make arrangements to provide a designated place to stay and arrange for food during the period.

It is important to note that once the first instalment payment is made in accordance with the agreement, no refunds can be applied for or processed under any circumstances, even in the event of agreement cancellation.

After the first instalment is paid, the member will receive a copy of the receipt as proof of the advance payment.

After depositing the second instalment, if the agreement is cancelled within 15 days, you will be eligible to receive a refund of 30% of the second instalment amount.

After depositing the third instalment, if the agreement is cancelled within 15 days, you will be eligible to receive a refund of 40% of the third instalment amount.

Upon depositing the full instalments, it is important to note that the money is non-refundable as per the community's rules and regulations. Members are advised that no refunds can be applied for or processed once the full payment has been made.

Before depositing the third instalment, it is possible to request a change of the member's name in the agreement.

After making the full payment, it is necessary to complete the documentation work and sign the relevant documents within 15 days. This process is crucial for obtaining the membership card, which grants access to the designated benefits and privileges associated with the membership.

After finishing your final payment, you will get a final agreement certificate and member card. Prior to the final payment and issuance of the member card, members can still avail rooms at a discounted price for their stay.

Thank you for taking the time to complete this form. If successful, we will confirm you of your booking by email.
